ALBUM BOOK BACKDROP: HERE COME THE GIRL SCOUTS!

Album Description

This book backdrop is created to give primary students a context for the book Here Comes the Girl Scouts! by Shana Corey and illustrated by Hadley Hooper. These images and newspapers will give students additional background knowledge and enhance a rich conversation. The images and newspapers can be used at any time within reading the story. Pre K - 2 3 - 5

GIRL SCOUTS

Teaching Notes:

This is a picture of a girl scout interacting with Uncle Sam. This image can be used with questions such as "Who do you see in this picture?" and "What do you know about these figures? How does this relate to the importance of girl scouts?".

I imagine this being used at the end of the book.

THE WASHINGTON TIMES. [VOLUME], JUNE 20, 1915, SUNDAY EVENING EDITION, PAGE 11, IMAGE 11

Teaching Notes:

Pointing out to students that this is in a newspaper would let give additional context to the importance of Girl Scouts. They would be able to contrast activities that were done in the past to the present.
